

Kasen is a nearly 3 year old little boy who is full of life, a lover of all things dirt and filled with more energy than can be contained. All of that changed for Kasen and his family when he was diagnosed with brain cancer. This sweet brown eyed soldier is in the fight of his life and needs our help. Kasen has had a rough few months since his diagnosis and still has a tough battle to fight.